

2nd International Scientific Conference

Sustainable Development – - Regional and Local Dimensions

on-line, on May 19, 2022

The Organising Committee cordially invites You to the 2nd International Scientific Conference ‘Sustainable Development - Regional and Local Dimensions’, organised by the Department of Development Policy and Marketing at the Institute of Economics and Finance, WULS-SGGW.

The event will provide a forum for the exchange of knowledge, views and research findings in the field of multifaceted sustainable local and regional development.

The organisers invite papers and on-line presentations rethinking established theories and research methods, as well as those identifying new fields of enquiry and shedding new light on the reasons for and consequences of social, economic and environmental changes in local and regional contexts of sustainable development.
